

YOUNG COLLECTOR ODDLY MISSING

Joseph L. Rosenzweig Started on His Route Last Friday
Morning from Twenty-third Street to Battery.

FAMILY AND EMPLOYERS FEAR FOUL PLAY.

Man Bears Good Reputation
and Was a Hard Worker—
Made Several Calls the Day
He Disappeared.

Joseph Leon Rosenzweig, a youth of 23 years, who was employed as a collector, is missing from his home, No. 120 Fulton avenue, Bronx, and because he is supposed to have had a considerable amount of money with him when he was last seen his family and employers fear that he has met with foul play. Rosenzweig collected on a route between Twenty-third street and the Battery. He was a hard worker and bore an excellent reputation. He reported to his employers for work at 9 o'clock last Friday morning, and then started out to make collections. That was the last his employers saw of him.

HE HIT IT WITH A HAMMER.

It Was a Railroad Torpedo and It
Injured Boy's Leg.

Nine-year-old Raymond Gray, son of John A. Gray, a wealthy foundryman at Long Island City, found a peculiar looking little package on the dumb-waiter in the apartment-house in which his parents live last night. He took it to the cellar and hit it with a hammer.

The resultant explosion almost blew of his right leg. He had hit a railroad torpedo. Mr. Gray has asked the police to find out how the torpedo got on the dumb-waiter.

Hegeman & Co., 200 Broadway, Guarantee to Refund Money if Hyomel Fails to Cure the Worst Case of Catarrh.

Hyomel is very easy and pleasant to use. Just breathe it through the little inhaler that comes with every outfit; every breath will bring recovery so much the nearer. It kills all the germs of catarrhal troubles in the air passages of the head, throat and lungs, soothes and heals the irritated mucous membrane, and is the only natural cure for catarrh. The complete outfit costs but one dollar, and extra bottles of Hyomel can be obtained for fifty cents. Do not let a slight catarrhal trouble develop into one that may be serious and chronic. Use Hyomel at once, remembering that you run no risk whatever when you try Hyomel on Hegeman & Co.'s offer of "No cure, no pay."

Stylish millinery: outing and dress wear.

WHETHER you desire a dress hat, tailor suit hat, a simply trimmed hat or a duck or pique hat for outing wear you'll find our showing not only the best but decidedly the largest in New York. That's conceded by all smart dressers.

Selling as we do more millinery than any other house in New York, we are able to get our prices down to the very lowest notch—that's why it's possible to save so much on your millinery here.

Our styles faultlessly fashioned—materials the best—to-morrow we offer a collection of $12 trimmed dress hats just from our own workrooms at $7.95.

1,000 tailor suit and stiff trimmings, with a few exceptions from our own workrooms, at $1.75 up to $10.50 each.

Two outing hats for to-morrow's selling—white pique sailor effects and double brim new Tuscan sailors—very jaunty styles, trimmed with white silk and breasts, at $3.95.

Blum & Koch's men's sample straw hats $2.

THIS is the greatest straw hat bargain news ever announced, and you can depend upon it that it's so good that they will not last long, for we've only 2,000 hats. Just one year ago we held a similar sale, but this time we've over twenty different styles to choose from. There's not a hat in the lot worth less than $3, and most of them are positively worth $4, $5 and $6, and even more, for there's a lot of very fine split and Sennet straw hats that are worth $7, $8 and up to $10, but then there's not enough of them to lay stress on this item. However, if you're here early you can just as well have one of these hats. It all depends upon you.

These hats are the travelling men's samples of Blum & Koch—No. 90 Fifth avenue, New York. Their very name is synonymous with correct straw hat styles, for they are to men's hats what Worth and Paquin are to women's apparel—the acknowledged style arbiters of straw hat fashions. We illustrate 12 popular styles, and there are many more, so you are sure of being suited, and every one is numbered among the season's most popular shapes.

The travelling salesmen of Blum & Koch used these hats to show to the trade when taking orders, and now that they are through with them, they sold them to us at a price that enables us to give you your choice at $2.

$2 This sale coming as it does on the eve of straw hat weather is sure to create a genuine sensation. Don't put off coming, for these extraordinary bargains are worth coming for early—extra salespeople to take care of the noon hour rush if you want to come during your lunch hour. The special price is..... $2

9,000 articles in leather at 1/2 regular cost

NOT in a single instance is the price more than one-half the regular cost of these useful travelling requisites and other articles in leather—a sale of wonderful import and far reaching effect among those who will be off to the country Saturday to remain till after Decoration Day—to every person in New York and surrounding territory who contemplates a trip during the Summer. A sale equally important to man or woman. Everything is new and of the highest quality.

It's the greatest assortment of things in leather New York or any other city has ever known—the entire sample line of the best leather manufacturer in the world. Among them are hundreds of imported pieces—Frankfort, Offenbach, Vienna and Paris have contributed to this great aggregation of choice leather excellence. A sale of the better kinds at "something different" covering the cost of labor, to say nothing of materials—to the discriminating thoughtful seeker after the "little different" much is here to interest.
